Tim Cook joins MTB

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, Colo. – MTB Project Management Professionals Inc. has announced that Tim Cook has joined the company as senior construction manager.

In this role, Cook serves as the project owner's representative and directly manages all onsite activities of construction contractors, consultants and vendors. This role is vital to ensuring project completion according to schedule and within budget. Cook will immediately organize and manage construction of the Idaho Cobalt underground mine project in northern Idaho.

Cook has more than 18 years of professional experience as a manager and field engineer supervising general construction, demolition and environmental remediation projects in North and South America. A graduate of the University of Wyoming, he has extensive experience planning and managing earthworks, concrete, steel and other disciplines.

MTB is a leading international supplier of project and construction management services to the mining, environmental remediation, and industrial/commercial construction industries. The company also offers important ancillary services, such as mitigation and resolution of construction claims, financial analysis and due diligence, feasibility study preparation and review, logistics management and project-related community relations.

Inquiries may be directed to MTB Project Management Professionals at (303) 741-9633, by fax at (303) 741-9636, or via email at info@mtb-project.com.
